Campus Labs Baseline Basics Workshop Evaluations – Spring 2013

Brief description of program:

Campus Labs (formerly StudentVoice) is the assessment management system utilized by Student Affairs. The Student Affairs Assessment, Evaluation and Research Office (AER) offers trainings open to any Student Affairs employee. The Basics workshop provided an overview of the system, including the process to set up a survey in Campus Labs and key features available when looking at survey results in Campus Labs.

Who was asked to complete survey:

Student Affairs employees who attended the workshop on March 12, 2013

Response Rate: 50.0% (2 of 4)
Administration Type: Campus Labs mailing

Summary of Key Findings:

- All respondents felt more comfortable with Campus Labs and gained familiarity with the different methods to administer surveys in Campus Labs.
- Respondents all agreed that they knew how and why to look at the preview and outline of a project, as well as skills related to looking at the results.
- On a 4-point scale, the information presented averaged 4.00 and the presenter's communication style averaged 3.00.

Actions Taken:

- Feedback was shared with the presenter for professional development.
- Due to low number of respondents, additional actions are not warrented.

Which department and/or program goals does this survey align with?

4. Provide a culture of assessment through training opportunities for AER and Student Affairs staff.
4.a. Provide training to Student Affairs staff on assessment, strategic planning, and related topics.

Which Student Affairs goals does this program align with?

6. Utilize a coordinated assessment, evaluation and research approach to promote data driven decision-making.
6.f. Provide educational opportunities for staff to develop and refine assessment skills.