

Work Environment Survey

Key Findings:

- Higher level of dissatisfaction with cross communication between functional areas in the department.
- Higher level of dissatisfaction with feedback and coaching from supervisor

Actions Taken:

Conversations took place with staff to obtain the qualitative information to connect with the quantitative information. Follow through took place to address the concerns.