

Junior Day 2007 Summary

49 Respondents

49 Completed

53.06% Students

16.33% Parents

30.61% Other

93.88% of respondents reported Junior Day was a worthwhile event and their needs were met.

95.92% of respondents reported that questions they had about the University of Utah were answered sufficiently.

83.68% of respondents reported communication prior to the event was helpful (map, invitation, phone calls, etc.).

87.76% of respondents reported the information presented helped them understand what is required to become eligible for scholarships.

Respondents reported attending the following workshops during the 1st session:

34.69% Financial Aid

32.65% Choosing a major

10.20% Involvement

12.24% Learning Communities

10.20% Housing

95.92% of respondents reported the information presented on this individual program helped them understand the resources available to them.

Respondents reported attending the following workshops during the 2nd session:

12.24% Financial Aid

20.41% Choosing a major

16.33% Involvement

26.53% Learning Communities

24.49% Housing

95.91% of respondents reported the information presented on this individual program helped them understand the resources available to them.

24.49% of respondents reported the tour of campus was informative (93.88% reported N/A).

When asked to identify what aspect of this event was most beneficial, the top 5 responses were:

Learning Communities (6)

Student Panel (4)

Choosing a major (3)

Tour (3)

Financial Aid (2)