

Union Staff Survey

Key Findings:

Need to improve communication

Actions Taken

We have changed the way we communicate. There are more meetings and all minutes of all meetings are sent to staff. This has resulted in people being better informed and an unexpected result is that there is less gossip because of speculation about things people “heard through the grapevine.”